Boehling to Pitch Against Colts---Change in Colt Lineup

M'GUIRE'S AGAIN BEAT BENEDICTINE

Nip and Tuck Contest Is Won in Tenth-Inning Batting Bee.

McGuire's yesterday afternoon dein the same inning scored one, o this time Hammond had been ig for McGuires, and had been remarkably well, but McGuire's wanted to let Snead, a new man, tehing for a while, so Ham-was shifted to second, and Snead place in the box. In this need struck out two men, and Mackmen Put on Swatting Clothes, and Dooin's Team Tastes Defeat Again.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Philadelphia, Pa., April 4.—Wicked blew up in the seventh inning of to day's game between the Athletics and runs and tying the score. The triumph was short-lived, as the Athletics came right back with three runs in both the seventh and eighth, making the final score; Athletics, 9; Phillies, 3.

With the score tied. Dooin called upon Earl Moore to keep the Athletics from adding to their string, but Earl wasn't able to fill the job. After the Athletics got three runs he was yanked out and Marshall started in the eighth. The Athletics hammered Marshall for the string the string

MERKLE SLAMS BALL FOR RECORD DRIVE WHILE COLTS LOSE

Giant First Baseman Lofts Leather Over Left Field Fence-Four Homers, Including One by Sandy Piez, Mark McGraw Victory. Locals' Defense Poor.

BY GUS MALBERT.

eroned on a homeward voyage by John Jay McGraw. Officially, the spikes is strummed, and Mr. R. Marquis Marquard, a Thespian of some renown, furnished the chief features of the social gathering, which numbered about as many as the incomplete condition of the stands would accommodate. They were all there, and the one shy spot of the occasion was pink tea properly served with wafers. Paying homage to their brother of the boards and showering congratulatins upon Mrs. Blossom Selec Marquard or Mrs. Marquard Blossom Selec, as the facetions would have it—she was among those Som Sclec, as the facetions would have it—she was among those present; the slightly built young woman just behind the stand allotted the Gotham constellation—were Billy B. Van and the hands who help him make fun for the weary.

In the press box might have been from time to time from time to time house have reported by the sand lots, Charles Strain. Some from time to time house have reported by the sand lots, Charles Strain. Some form the have from time to time house have reported by the sand lots, Charles Strain. Some form the house of the Herinitage fles that ball, built was no serious results. Mr. Sid Mercer, itherant war correspondent wherever the diants making to sand lots, Charles Strain. Some have from time to time house of the sand lots, Charles Strain. Some house of the Herinitage fles that ball, though all season will be practically opened to wherever the diants making to sand the form sam Crane—never a mister of Sand Cra the system of through the second features are supported to make the £20 train North. However, though the social features andded greatly to the gaiety, and though Mr. Marquard hurled will easier the short as a support of the same than the support of the same than the support of the support o taking into account the surroundings.

Mr. Merkle managed to awaken for a trief spell, just long enough to furnish a knock which went around the world bounded by the seven hills of

That Hit of Merkle's.

INVADER AUTO OIL Best Grade Auto Lubricating Oil

his tribe, Mr. Merkle deposited an of-

CHEMI-COMPANY

Absolutely Guaranteed! Pure Wool Suits at $15.00

Patch Pocket Norfolks Included. KAHN'S OF RICHMOND, The Toggery Shop," 713 E. Broad St.

Visit our Women's and Misses' Suit Department, both figuratively and literally, were hunting new brands of alibis to hand to ye populace that gathered within the ball yard to view from a safe distance that select coterie of individuals being chapthey are known as Giants, and never a Jack was found among the local talent with a convenient beanstalk wherewith to beguile them from their ruthless path. It was a mangled lot of Colts that left the inclosure after the decimating encounter. It ended 19 to 5.

Frederick Merkle, more or less well known where the song of lich was the homer referred to by Picz, netting a brace of tallies. A trio of safeties came again in the fifth, but no runs resulted.

Defense Cracks Woefully

Defense Cracks Woefully.

Not during the practice season have he Colts shown to such poor advanage. The defense was horrible, as the otal of nine errors tells. Added to his weakling defense, Charlie Strain is d eight passes and hit three bats.

The only explanation that can offered is that the youngsters were sed to a high pitch, were at an exme nervous tension in a very evi-Continued on Seventh Page.

They are Pitchers Mathewson, Demarce, Tesreau, Goulait, Marquard and big Chief Myers. McGraw gives these one of his reasons for believing he will repeat as pennant winner in the National League.

will have an added incentive to win, because it will mark the "christening" the

COVERCOAT LANDS RACING REVIVED TO MEET DODGERS STEEPLECHASE IN NEW YORK CITY

the three placed fell. The American meetings may be considered, says the horse, High Bridge, owned by J. R. announcement. It is probable, it was Fell, went out early in the race while learned, that there will be fall racing

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Williamsburg, Va., April 4.—For the first time in the history of her athletics, William and Mary's baseball team will make a Northern trip, during which she will cross bats with Columbia, St. Johns, New York University and Fordham University.

The taces, which are to be revived.

at the Aqueduct and Empire City tracks as well as at Belmont Park and Ja-maica again.

The revival has been made possible by a recent court decision holding that oral betting was not bookmaking, and that such betting did not make directian associations liable to that such betting did not make directors of racing associations liable to prosecutions under the antibetting laws. The subscribing owners include August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan, H. P. Whitney, H. T. Oxnard, Joseph E. Widener, George D. Widener, James Butler and R. T. Wilson.

Realizing that racing associations would be put to great expense in an effort to re-establish racing, the announcement says, and to avoid the necessity of their charging burdensome both teams are strong and confident.

The line up of the Kohn's follows:

Farley, Zimmer and T. Wilcox, fielders: Robinson and Creekmore, pitchers; Deoppie, catcher; Lowe or Clay, first base; Browning, second base; Currie, third base; R. Wilcox, shortstop.

The pitching staff on the trip will be made up of Shiers, Addington and Shackelford. The garden will be cared for by Garth, Addison and Jones. Zehmer will perform behind the bat, Peachy at short, Hubbard at first, Tucker at second and Games at third will complete the infield.

The pitching staff on the trip will be in all, fifty-five racing days are definitely provided for up to September 1. Racing at Belmont Park at the meeting beginning May 30 will be held only three days a week. It is understood that from $2,000 to $2,500 is to be added to all stakes and $1,000 to selling will complete the infield.

BOEHLING TO PITCH IN TO-DAY'S BIG GAME

Local Boy Will Start Against Colts-Griffin to Play Second, and General Shake-Up Will Be Noticed in Line-Up of Home Lads. consider the advisability of moving Bresnahan above Newton.

Line-Up for To-Day's Game

Morley, ss.

Marris, rf. Plez, lf. Griffin, 2b. Raley, 1b. Newton, 88. Bresnahan, 3b. Mace, c. Luskey, c. Phipps, p. Smallwood, gone, and since there are other battles vance notices. to be fought—battles of far greater Clark Griffith sends in his limportance and of far more intrinsic. Joe Boehling, and the local lad, worth to the club than the exhibi-NEW YORK CITY

New York, April 4.—Horse racing is o be revived in New York State. This is serviced in New York State. This issurance was given to-night in an interpretable of the club than the exhibitions—Grif will pow turn his mind momentarily to mending fences. He was not pleased with the resounding crack which went through the defense of his workmen yesterday and to-day, when the Colts met the Pimientas, of Washington, or in less fantastic language, the sensational second team, a different lineup will be presented. First, and of greatest importance is the announcement of this de termination. With Boehling, Austin the announcement that Grif will go to another Washington recruit, will she to the pany this season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season, will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season will be given a rousing welcome. Though the season will be given a rousing welcome. Though the same than the season will be given a rousing welcome. Though the same the hands of Broklyna the s the announcement that Grif will go to another Washington recruit, will shar his regular station at second. Though the pitching duties. Dutch Munch, he is by no means fit, he feels that he > shift in the batting order. Eberts lead off, as before, and Charles will remain in the game, going to right, with Piez shifted over to left. Instead of Raley in the cleanup sta-Instead of Raisy in the corally at tion, Grif will be found and John will follow. Then comes Doc Newton, Bresnahan and the battery. At least that is the tentative lineup. It may he announced that it would take some thing more than a crowd of Washing ton Rookies to beat him if he is righ As for the Phipps person, there reall isn't a great deal to go on. He pitche one game against William and Mar and the Collegians seemed not to hav a great deal of difficulty in solving hi foolers. He is a big sort of man, an if size counts will measure if size counts, will measure up to dividuals are touted as being wonder on the Lamond. At any rate they wi furnish a first-class drawing care Ray Morgan will not appear, but this disappointment will be appeased in ntment will be felt that disappointment will be appeared in the knowledge that Ray has made the regular team. In fact, the statement is sent forth now that Laporte, the doughty Frenchman, who took Ray s Continued on Seventh Page.

Amusi ments

HAMILTON KERR

Johns, New York University and Fordham University.

The Kahn's of Richmond, in the Old Dominion League, will cross bats with the strong Highland Park team of the Richmond League, this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the C. & O. grounds. This game should be fast and snappy, as both teams are strong and confident.

The line up of the Kohn's follows:
Farley, Zimmer and T. Wilcox, field
THOURD I All Johns, New York University and Fordham University.

The team starts with a clean record, having defeated McGuire's School, 6-0; Union Theological Seminary, 5-2; C. A. C., 1-0, and the M. C. V., 9-4. Judging Brooklyn Handicap, Great American, Brooklyn Derby and Astoria Dinner Stakes. The Futurity is carded to be rovived at Belmont Park, according to the announcement, include the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the Metropolitan Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the American Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the American Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the American Handicap, Withers, Juvenile, Grand National Steeplechase, the Belmont Park, according to the American Handi Pinehurst, N. C., April 4.-Hamilton

ver. Col.

In the championship consolation,
Howard Weber, of Inverness, O., plays
Chisholm Beach, of Fox Hills, N. Y.

to-morrow.

ACADEMY --- Fri., SAT.

BUNTY PULLS THE STRINGS By Graham Moffatt.
Prices: Matinee, 25c to $1.00. Evening, 25c to $1.50. Academy--- MONDAY, APRIL 7 Seats now.

MRS. FISKE

The High Road THIS WEEK BIJOU Mats. Tues. Thur. & Sat.

BEST SEATS, 50 CENTS. BILLY B. VAN

the Beaumont Sisters, in the Big Musical Success, "A LUCKY HOODOO

NEXT WEEK-"THURSTON," th World's Greatest Magician.

Bringing Up Father

Copyright, 1913, International News Service.

By George McManus

